

I strongly oppose allowing media consolidation within markets. The diversity of voices in the media are needed to keep our democracy strong.